

ARTISTS FOR HUMANITY AMERICORPS MASSACHUSETTS PROMISE FELLOW

AmeriCorps Massachusetts Promise Fellows deliver the resources young people need to be successful in life by creating, managing, and leading meaningful out-of-school time programs for youth in grades 6-12. Fellow projects focus on mentoring, social and emotional learning, college and career readiness, academic enrichment, and community service-learning.

The Massachusetts Promise Fellowship achieves this by placing AmeriCorps Fellows with schools, non-profit organizations and state/local government agencies that focus on fulfilling the needs of our youth by providing: a caring adult, a safe place, a healthy start, a marketable skill, and an opportunity to give back.

SERVICE DESCRIPTION

BOSTON- Founded in 1991, Artists For Humanity's (AFH) mission is to provide under-resourced urban youth with the keys to self-sufficiency through paid employment in art and design. AFH began with what was then an ambitious and unconventional idea – young people can provide, through their innate talent and vision, contemporary creative services to the business community. In 2004, AFH constructed Boston's first Platinum LEED-certified facility, the Artists For Humanity EpiCenter, which allowed us to grow exponentially as a youth and cultural community resource, a successful enterprise, and a center for economic and environmental sustainability. AFH is now the largest onsite employer of Boston teens, empowering them through experiential arts/entrepreneurship and workforce development opportunities.

Reporting to the Education Director, the Fellow/Education Coordinator is responsible for supporting Artists For Humanity's educational/teen benefit goals. With the Mentor being the first line of communication with teen apprentices, the Fellow/Education Coordinator works in direct collaboration with AFH Mentors to achieve program goals. In addition to direct service and preparation for educational programming, the Fellow/Education Coordinator is responsible for reporting on success of all responsibility areas. The Fellow/Education Coordinator works in close collaboration with the Education Director.
