

Asian Community Development Corporation AmeriCorps Massachusetts Promise Fellow

AmeriCorps Massachusetts Promise Fellows deliver the resources young people need to be successful in life by creating, managing, and leading meaningful out-of-school time programs for youth in grades 6-12. Fellow projects focus on and college and career exploration and academic enrichment.

The Massachusetts Promise Fellowship achieves this by placing AmeriCorps Fellows with schools, non-profit organizations and state/local government agencies that focus on fulfilling the needs of our youth by providing: a caring adult, a safe place, a healthy start, a marketable skill, and an opportunity to give back.

Service Description

Boston – Chinatown-AsianCDC's youth leadership program, A-VOYCE, creates a pipeline of high school-aged Asian American youth who have the vision and tools to shape the physical landscape of their neighborhoods. As a part of A-VOYCE's commitment to this vision, A-VOYCE is expanding its program with an unofficial tier in Chinatown. The Fellow will build out this program, with a focus on community project execution and college/career readiness.

The Fellow will be responsible for building out ACDC's college and career readiness program in 3 ways:

1. Deliver a marketable skills curricula that equips 15-20 youth (ages 14-18)
2. Support new and returning youth in applying and practicing learned marketable skills by executing community projects
3. Build out existing college access initiatives including "SOUL College Readiness Retreat," match savings program, and college tours/panels

In addition to programming, the Fellow will act as a supportive adult and develop relationships with the 15-20 youth.

Essential Responsibilities

- Develop a 35-week program that equips youth with project management and team management skills
- Create and deliver marketable skills curriculum that will be applied through community projects
- Recruit 8-10 high school youth (ages 14-18) through school visits, flyers, soliciting
- Coordinate guest workshops that aim to increase financial literacy and college preparedness
